around into Fifty-sixth-st., and it was largely around into Fifty-sixth-st., and it was largely made up of solid and substantial citizens, who were there to do honor to the Republican candidate for Governor. It was a good-natured crowd, and the only thing which worried it was its inability to get inside and hear the here of San Juan Hill. If last night's crowd was an indication of what Candidate Roosevelt's campaign is going to be, it will certainly be a memorable one in the history of the Empire State's politics. A notable feature about the great gathering on the outside of the hall was that the crowd stayed late, stayed in fact until the meeting was over. The police arrangements were excellent, and, although it took a large number of men to keep the entrances clear, they did their work well, considering the circumstances.

General Benjamin F. Tracy called at the Pith Avenue Hotel yesterday foreneon to consult with ex-President Harrison, with whom he is associated as counsel in the Venezuela boundary case. He would speak from the same platform with Seth Low, at a mass-meeting in the Academy of Music, in Brooklyn, on October 19. General Harrison is being urged to speak in the campaign, but so far he has declined, owing to pressing personal business.

The Tammany candidate has not yet been nominated.

He contended that the public needed greater protection from an unbridled press, and asked for a vindication of his course, saying that he was conscious of no wrong in offering his bill. He virtually announced that he would urge the passage of the bill again, and asked the district to indorse his course thereon.

SILVER DEMOCRATS WIN IN ULSTER.

Van Eiten, of this city, for County Judge, Eldorus Dayton, of Mariborough, for Surrogate, James Jenkins, of this city, for District Attorney, and Josiah J. A reader of The Tribune has written to make the suggestion that managers of large campaign meetings in the city this fall adopt the practice of admitting holders of tickets to the hails as early as 6 p. m. in order that those who want to go early can avoid a crush. That practice was adopted at the Palmer and Buckner meeting in Madison Square Garden two years ago, and there was no confusion when the large audience was assembling. CAPTAIN MAHAN ARRIVES FROM GENOA.

Captain Mahan retired from the Navy several years ago in order that he might devote his time to writing on naval matters. He was recalled and placed on the active list and made a member of the Navai Strategy Board. When the peace protocol was signed Captain Mahan resumed his interrupted vacation and returned to Italy. ond is the title of the case, in the third are the names of the plaintiffs' attorneys, in the fourth are the names of the defendants' attorneys, and in the fifth is the amount of the fee paid. The case numbered 213 was that of "The People against T. L. Feitner (President of the Tax Department): Hawke & F. J. Whalen: $3." On Saturday, October 1, cases, Nos. 214 and 215 were the same as No. 213. The columns opposite these numbers merely had been filled in with "do" (ditto). Mr. Speer discovered that since he had first seen the book the dittos following the number 215 had been erased and the record of the Roosevelt case inserted. In addition to this, between the lines 213 and 214 a line of ditto marks had been placed, and "83" had been interlined in the fee column. This interlined case was No. 215 in the Hawke & F. cases before the number was given to Colonel Roosevelt's case. The money account as shown on this page is $3 less than it should be if the fee in Colonel Roosevelt's case had been added. Moreover, in the back of the book is a voucher issued by John A. Wrede, treasurer of the Controller's office, for the sum of $825. Had the fee for Colonel Roosevelt's case been duly recorded the sum which Mr. Wrede would have receipted for, it was pointed out, would have been $828 instead of $825. This discrepancy, together with the erasures, in the opinion of Colonel Roosevelt's counsel, sufficiently prove that the record was "dectored."

Then, in all probability, the political cry would have been raised that the Supreme Court had decided that Colonel Boosevelt was not a resident this State, and before we could have appeal from the decision the election would have be reporter to Mr. Speer, but in reply to inquiries said: "The whole thing certainly looks queer, and should be ventilated to the fullest extent."

Mr Speer said he did not know what action would be taken in the matter.

When asked if he would take any steps to bring those responsible for the "doctoring" to account, Mr. Root replied only by a significant shrug of the shoulders.

Ferdinand Glaser, the clerk of the Special Term, and George H. Fahrbeck, the Deputy County Clerk, both insisted that the note of issue was flied on September 21. The note itself was seen, but it bears only the vague date "September, 1898." The excuse given for the insertion of the Roosevelt case after October I was that the clerks of the office had omitted to enter it at the proper time, and that the to enter it at the proper time, and that the error was rectified as soon as it was discov-

The law is said to have been violated in three The law is said to have been violated in three ways. First, by the clerk of the court, in accepting the note of issue and in placing the case on the calendar after September 21; second, in placing it upon the preferred calendar, which he had no power to do, and, third, in having the calendar printed in the official paper with this case on it. Besides, the action of the Corporation Counsel in failing to serve notice of trial on Colonel Roosevelt's counsel on or before September 19 is a matter which cannot easily be explained.

it is understood that Colonel Roosevelt's law-yers intend to bring the case to the attention of the Bar Association.

JAMES K APGAR FOR THE ASSEMBLY. REPUBLICANS OF THE HID WESTCHESTER DIS-TRICT NOMINATED HIM YESTERDAY. The Republicans of the IIId Assembly District of Westchester met at Croton Dam yesterday to nominate a candidate for Member of Assembly-The district is composed of the towns of Bedford. Hudson, chairman of the District Committee, and ex-Assemblyman D. Wiley Travis, of Cortland, was elected chairman. There were two candidates ran for the office last year and was defeated by John Gibney, and Hart Curry, of Somers, a new man in the politics of the district, whose claim to district were entitled to recognition after thirt) years of voting for candidates from along the river. Unfortunately for Mr. Curry his claim did not seem to be based upon any such general sentiment in his favor in the eastern section, as the large majority of the votes he received was from the river towns of Mount Pleasant and Ossining, in the extreme southwest part of the district.

Mr. Travis, on taking the chair, made a speech in which he referred, among other things, to the in which he referred, among other things, to the fact that thirty-two years previously he had been nominated himself for the Assembly on that spot. Edward G. Halsey, of Peekskill, nominated James K. Apgar, and Mr. Curry was named by a delegate from North Salem. Mr. Apgar was declared the nominee, receiving 43 votes to 28 cast for Mr. Curry. Mr. Apgar made a graceful speech of acceptance. His election is considered a foregoned conclusion, as he is personally popular and the district is strongly Republican. A GOOD PARTY RECORD.

The Senate district, however, is much larger than the Assembly district, and the changed circumstances this year will have a large effect on the result. The new conditions are such as to practically assure the election of Mr. Mairs. DECISION AGAINST THE RAINES LAW.

SOUTHWICK TO RUN AGAIN.

NUSSBAUM FOR STATE SENATOR-THE CAN-DIDATES' GOOD RECORDS.

Albany, Oct. 5 (Special).-Republicans of Albany and Myer Nussbaum for State Senator. The Sen of Albany, and Messrs. Southwick and Nussbaum have so well represented their districts here at the State capital and at Washington that there was n David B. Hill and Senator Edward Murphy, fr.

it is already obvious, will make a strong effort to elect Democrats from this Senate and Congress district. It was for this reason that the Repub-licans took especial pains with their candidates George Addington in nominating Mr. Southwick at the Republican convention said in his support:

George Addington in nominating Mr. Southwick at the Republican convention said in his support:

Mr. Southwick always has voted with the Republican party on National issues in the House of Representatives, and consequently voted right. He always has heeded a call or a request from his constituents in the county of Albany. He has been the friend and adviser of the soldier and others who have business at the National capital. He always has been alert to do something which would redound to the credit of his constituents and the county of Albany. He has secured the largest appropriations in the history of the State for the improvement of the Hudson River, and if returned to Congress, as I have no doubt he will be, the appropriations will be larger. In the late war he endeavored to secure something for the county of Albany, always being alert for its interests. New ships were being purchased and new ships were being built. He wanted Albany honored and it was through his efforts that the battle-ship Albany. He has done remarkable work with reference to appropriations, and received the largest appropriations for the gun factory at Warervilet in our county, and he is not second in the hearts of the laboring men of the county and State, even to John 'I McDonough. I think I can say without fear of contradiction that George N. Southwick is as dear to the members of the Federation of Labor in this county and State as any other man within these bounds.

The farmers throughout the county to my actual knowledge desure to vote for him, and when they elect him they desire that his term expire as rapidly as possible, so that they can see him and his genial countenance on the highways and byways of the county explaining National issues to them. George N. Southwick, the fighting Southwick, at the head of the county ticket, and the fighting Rough Rider at the head of the State ticket, will carry the Republican party of this county to victory and success.

ominate three Justices of the Supreme Court and a Judge of the City Court, will meet this evening at Hill Lyceum, in East Thirty-fourth-st., but probably will adjourn to another date before making the nominations. It is the desire of the Republican leaders to have the nominations for the fudiciary non-partisan, if the committee of the Bar Association, which is working to that end, can secure the co-operation of the Tammany leaders. The Tammany County Convention will not meet until next Wednesday night

Henry W. Taft, Henry E. Howland and William B. Hornblower waited upon Lemuel E. Quigg, president of the Republican County Committee, yesterday, and said that they represented a large body of lawyers in the city in sympathy with the the Bar Association's effort to secure the renomination of Justices of the Supreme Court who deserved renomination. They spoke particularly in favor of the renomination of Justice Joseph F. Daly. Mr. Quigg said he personally was in favor of aiding the Bar Association, and he believed that the Republican leaders in New-York County would receive the advice of the lawpers as to judiciary mominations with respect and due consideration. He asked that the committee should try to ascertain what action could be expected of the Tammany County Convention. The Republicans probably will renominate Justice Cohen, who was appointed by Governor Black to fil a short unexpired term. It has been reported that Tammany would refuse to renominate Justice Daly and would nominate John Whalen, James A. O'Gorman and either Henry D. Hotchkiss or Samuel Untermeyer.

VAN WYCK AT HEADQUARTERS.

HIS LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE NOT YET READY-THE OPENING OF THE CAMPAIGN Augustus Van Wyck, the Democratic candidate for Governor, paid a visit to Democratic headquarters in the Hoffman House yesterday. This is the first time that he has been there since his nomina tion. He met a large number of Democratic poli about 3 o'clock when the former Justice appeared. He had to ask his way to headquarters. He would not say anything about politics, but he went int a private room with Senator McCarren and Frank Campbell, chairman of the Democratic State Committee. They were together for about an hour, and at the close of the conference all were smiling and cheerful. Mr. Van Wyck returned to his home in Brooklyn. Things are running smoothly at Democratic headquarters, and all plans for a lively campaign are practically perfected. Senator McCarren said yesterday that he knew of no movement to get an injunction restraining the Secretary of State from placing Colonel Roosevelt's name on the official ballot. If any one had made a move in that direcplacing Colonel Roosevett's hame on the officathallot. If any one had made a move in that direction as had been reported, Senator McCarren says he was acting without the authorization of the State Committee. He said that he didn't know whether any action would be taken later or not.

DEMOCRATIC INFLUENCE.

NEW-YORK STATE PLATFORM CONDEMNS MANY MEN APPOINTED THROUGH A DEMOCRATIC BOOMERANG.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Washington, Oct. 5.—"Gall" is defined by Noah Webster as meaning, among other things, rancor or malignity. A more modern significance of the term comes within the definition of slang, and at "cold nerve." The Democrats of New-York seem to have combined the meanings. The declaration regarding the sufferings of the soldiers made in their platform can hardly be said to be free from malignity. At the same time, in view of the circumstances, it is also an exhibition of Tammany which undertakes to pass in judgment the conduct

McKinley would imagine that the men who con-trolled the Democratic State Convention were in any way responsible for appointing what they they are responsible for the suffering among the soldiers because of the "incompetent" civilians who secured Army places through their influence. They may have felt that they were not lacking in patriot-State platform which confronts them and holds the Senator Edward Murphy is a candidate for reelection. He will doubtless promptly repudiate this

Edward Murphy, for young Murphy was among the civilians who secured an Army commission. Nothing has heretofore been known to his discredit, but, now that he has been indicted by the Demo-cratic party of New-York, his father will see that he does not lack defence. It is not a pleasant thing for a son of a United States Senator to be Tammany at one time talked of nominating William Astor Chanier for Lieutenant-Governor because of his war record. Some other, political office has been pledged to him, yet William Astor Chanjer in another of the "inexperienced and incompetent civilians who are accountable for the fearful sufferings and the appalling loss of life among the solidiers, if the words of the Democratic State platform can be believed. He held a commission. Ex-Mayor Hewitt is a distinguished Democrat who may take issue with his party on this responsibility for the sufferings endured by the soldiers. His son, too, was given an Army commission, and the ex-Mayor, perhaps, doubts whether incompetency runs in the Hewitt blood.

Frederic R. Coudert may also think the State platform slightly personal. Lieutenant Coudert, his son, has made a good record in Porto Rico, but he was a civilian, and, therefore, if the State platform does not lie, was inexperienced and incompetent.

It may be that ex-Governor Roswell P. Flower will feel it incumbent upon himself to repudiate the language which stigmatizes his kin, Nathan M. Flower, as inexperienced and incompetent.

If a doubt exists regarding the New-York citizenship of former Senator Caivin S. Brice, there is none concerning the citizenship of his son, Stewart, M. Brice Young Brice has been honored by Tammany. He was one of the civilians who wore a captain's stripes and was attached to the Subsistence Department. It was not supposed at the time that, though a Democrat, has appointment was "a scandalous abuse of power" by the President, Nevertheless he must be among the inexperienced and incompetent was "a scandalous abuse of power" by the President Nevertheless he comes within the list of the mexperienced and incompetent of the subsistence of the
